

I'm writing in objection to changing the current no-call law.
It should remain as is. My phone has been quiet and I can enjoy a meal without being interrupted.
I also think the current law should apply to cell phones. No one wants to pay for time for incoming calls from advertisers.

Sincerely,
Ron Hauer